Meet Your Host!

John has been a dedicated member of Bursch Travel for 32 years, specializing in group travel. When he's not traveling, John enjoys working on his classic trucks and attending classic car shows. His favorite destination is Italy where he and his family traveled to after his youngest son graduated from high school. One of John's most memorable trip-planning experiences was helping a gentleman and his wife return to the homeland he had left during WWII which made the process deeply meaningful for him.
